Video: Dublexo Frej & Eik Chair

Copy:

Bring your indoor atmosphere and comfort outside

Small or large, a vacation home will always be a pleasant retreat and needs comfort. This is why furniture must satisfy more than one function without losing sight of style and comfort. Bring your modular chair outside to lounge while sipping the morning coffee in a sunny spot. The Dublexo chair invites you to lounge, whether inside or outside. Place the chairs end to end, effectively creating a lounge to relax comfortably.

N.B. The fabrics are not water resistant, breathable or UV resistant.

Multipurpose furniture - inside and outside

The Dublexo Frej and Eik chairs are well suited to be used both inside and outside, which accommodates needs in vacation homes where indoor and outdoor life merges. When the sun is shining, temperatures rise, and you feel an urge to step outside to enjoy the comfortable rays of sun. Why not bring your modular Dublexo chairs outside, use them as single seats or put them end to end to create a comfortable chaise lounge setting.

N.B. The fabrics are not water resistant, breathable or UV resistant
