Holiday with the grandchildren?

Spending time with the younger generation of your family typically allows for a lot of fun and games. And, should the weather not allow for outside activities, spending a day inside in a comfortable sofa setting might be just as good! Make sure that your family have a comfortable spot to rest or spend the night – Dublexo Frej is the perfect multifunctional sofa that doubles as a bed during the night. The comfort allows for everyday sleeping, so your family can easily stay for several days. At Innovation Living, we specialize in sofa beds and are experts at expanding your living space - Have a great summer!
